ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS; FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Not used, affidavits take their place.

AFFIDAVITS. Those for deeds may be taken before a Commissioner of affidavits; a Notary Public, Registrar of Deeds, or his Deputy; a Judge of the Supreme or County Court, or a Justice of the peace, within the Province; in Great Britain or Ireland, before a Supreme Court or Court of Sessions, or Scottish Justiciary Court Judge, or County Judge or Chief Magistrate of a City, Borough or Town under the seal of the Corporation, or a Commissioner of oaths of the Great Britain or Ireland Supreme Court, or a Commissioner appointed by Commission to take affidavits in and for the Provincial Courts, or a Notary Public, under his seal of office. In Quebec before the Judge or Prothonotary of the Superior Court, the Clerk of the Circuit Court, or a Commissioner appointed by Commission to administer oaths in and for this Province, or a Notary Public under his seal of office. In the English Dominions before a Judge of Court of Record or of the Supreme Court, the Mayor of a City, Borough or Town, under corporation's seal; a Notary Public under his seal of office; or in India before a Magistrate or Collector, but in that case the Governor must certify as to the official character of such officer, or a Commissioner appointed by Commission to take affidavits in and for the Province. In any Foreign Country before the Mayor of a City, Borough or Town, under corporation's seal, a British Consul, Vice-Consul or Consular Agent, a Judge of the Court of Record or Notary Public under his seal of office, or a Commissioner appointed by a Commission to administer oaths in and for this Province. Other affidavits may be taken before a Notary Public, or Commissioner of affidavits authorized by the court within the Province; without the Province similar provision to deeds.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit satisfactory to the Judge showing a good cause of action in amount of over One Hundred Dollars, and belief that the defendant is about to leave the Province with intent to defraud, the Judge may issue an order directing the arrest. When the Plaintiff has recovered his judgment upon similar affidavit showing secret or fraudulent conveyance of property by the debtor, writ will also issue. Married women are not liable to arrest.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must run to the Sheriff of the Debtor's County, though if a majority of creditors with claims of more than One Hundred Dollars consent, a resident of the province may be appointed; creditors must prove claim by affidavit and state all security if any. Non-matured claims may be proved. Employees wages have preference. None others allowed.

ATTACHMENT. Upon an affidavit showing that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff, and has absconded with intent to defraud or to avoid arrest or process, or is about to do so, and was or is possessed of property not exempt from levy, the plaintiff may procure a Judge's order directing a warrant to issue. In the Division Court, where the claim is between four and one hundred dollars, a similar warrant may be obtained.

BILLS OF SALE. (See Chattel Mortgages.)

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Must be registered with the Clerk of the County Court, where the property is, within five days after execution, and also affidavits of a subscribing witness, and of the mortgagee, as to execution and bona fides; a lien of one year may be renewed by filing a verified statement, showing the mortgagee's interest and the amount due and payments on account, within thirty days preceding the expiration of the term.

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provision.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provision.

CURTESY. Life estate to husband in realty left by deceased wife, but he need not join in her deed.

DOWER. Life estate to widow of one-third of realty owned by husband.

EXEMPTIONS. Specified personal property, see Statute. Household furniture $150 in value, provisions and fuel $40 in value, animals, $75 in value, fodder for thirty days, tools $100 in value, dog, fifteen hives of bees. Homesteads to settlers in Algoma and Nipissing Districts and lands between Ottawa River and Georgian Bay.

GARNISHMENT. Debts due to a judgment debtor may be reached by garnishment, except wages under twenty-five dollars, of mechanics and clerks.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Victoria Day (May 24), December 25, Sovereign's Birthday, Thanksgiving Day, Dominion Day (July 1), Labor Day (1st Monday in September). Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement, any rate. Banks may recover only seven per cent.

JUDGMENTS. A lien on lands from time Sheriff receives a writ of fi fa, for three years and may be renewed from time to time, for the same period.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. Must be registered in the office of the County Registrar within thirty days after completion, or seven days after the architect has given his certificate, or after refusal to give such certificate on application and must be enforced within ninety days' completion.

LIMITATIONS. Twenty years: Adverse possession perfected; for rent upon demise; on covenant or for debt on a specialty, except a mortgage which with action to recover lands is ten years. Six years: Upon contracts or notes. Two years: For damages.

MARRIED WOMEN. May acquire and dispose of property as if unmarried; may contract with regard to her separate property; the profits of her trade or occupation or employment carried on separately from her husband are her property; may sue and be sued; if there be a decree of alimony against her husband or he be insane, imprisoned or neglects or refuses to support her or she through good cause leaves him or he deserts her, she may obtain an order allowing her to receive the earnings of the minor children. She is not liable to arrest.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bills not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-juridical day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-juridical day, shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. Upon giving an undertaking to the Sheriff in three times the value of the property, in a case where it has been wrongfully taken or detained, it may be replevied under order of the Court.

QUEBEC

ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS; FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. May be taken before a Notary Public, who retains the original, and issues an authenticated copy, within the Province. Without the Province may be taken according to the laws of the place, and should have two witnesses where the acknowledgment is of a mortgage or deed requiring registration; affidavit of the execution must be made by one of the witnesses before a British Minister, Charge d'Affaires, or Consul. In this Province Notary is a public officer.

AFFIDAVITS. In Great Britain and Ireland, before the Mayor, Commissioner of affidavits appointed by Commission or a Commissioner authorized by the English Lord Chancellor, or Notary Public under his seal of office. In the British Dominions, before a Mayor or Commissioner of affidavits appointed by Commission or a Judge of the Superior Court. In a foreign country, before a Mayor or Chief Magistrate, under corporation seal, or before a British Consul or Consular Agent, or Commissioner of affidavits appointed by Commission.

ARREST. Upon an affidavit showing a cause of action involving an amount of fifty dollars or more, made or due in Quebec or Ontaria, and that the defendant is about to leave the provinces with intent to defraud, or is secreting or converting property with like intent, or is about to do so, or is a trader and insolvent, and refuses to assign his property a writ of summons and arrest may be obtained.

ASSIGNMENTS. May only be made upon demand of creditors.

ATTACHMENTS. Upon filing an affidavit showing indebtedness in amount over five dollars and a reason which would permit of a capias being had (See Arrest); the debtor's movables may be attached, and also the debtor's property in the hands of a third party by garnishment. There is a third attachment in "revendication" by which the owner of a movable may replevin it from the third party, detaining it illegally, and a fourth attachment called "Conservatory" exercisable by a vendor of movables on credit, and which operates to place the chattels in judicial custody. They are all issued upon affidavit.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Only known as to vessels in course of construction.

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provisions.

CONSIGNMENTS. No Specific statutory provisions.

CURTESY. Not known. Marital relations follow the French system.

DOWER. Two kinds: legal or conventional; first, is one-half of husband's immovables owned by him at time of marriage, or accruing thereafter, from his ancestors, is perfected by the death of the husband and must be registered; conventional dower may be stipulated for by ante-nuptial contract.

EXEMPTIONS. Specified personal property, see statute. Household furniture, cooking utensils, etc., $50 in value; pensions granted by official and other institutions to their employees or army and navy pensions or pay, salaries and fees of master, tutor, school teachers, professors or public officers, except those of the Province, the salaries of public officers and employees of the Province, Clerk or other municipal officer or employee, or assessors may be garnished for one-fifth of each month's salary not in excess of one thousand dollars per annum; one-fourth of each month's salary not in excess of two thousand dollars; one-third in excess of two thousand dollars; one-fifth of the salary or earnings of a pilot may be taken; other salaries and wages are exempt as to four-fifths when they are not in excess of three dollars a day, as to three-fourths when they are not in excess of six dollars; as to two-thirds when they exceed six dollars, and also spinning and weaving implements for family use, axe or gun, fishing lines and nets, six traps, one tube, washing machine, wringer, sewing machine, two pails, three flat irons, blacking brush, scrubbing brush, broom, drawings, paintings and books to the number of fifty volumes, three months' provisions and fuel, team of farm horses or yoke of oxen, horse, vehicle, sleigh, harness, cow, two pigs, four sheep with their wool or its products and fodder for the above animals; also a plow, harrow, working sleigh, tumbril, hay wagon and necessary harness. To a professional man or artisan the books relating to his profession or art, etc., $200 in value and his implements, etc., used in such pursuit $200 in value, fifteen stands of bees. Religious furnishings, family portraits, subject matter of a trust, alimony.

GARNISHMENT. (See Attachments.)

INTEREST. Five per cent, by express agreement any rate; banks limited to seven per cent.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, December 25, Soverign's Birthday, Thanksgiving Day, The Epiphany, The Annunciation, The Ascension, Corpus Christi, St. Peter and St. Paul's Day, All Saints' Day, Conception Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

JUDGMENTS. A lien for thirty years; the registration of the judgment makes it in effect a mortgage against the debtor's lands.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. Must register their claim within thirty days from completion; must be enforced within a year except where otherwise stipulated in the contract.

LIMITATIONS. Thirty years: upon judgments and mortgages, and this term also perfects adverse possession of land, etc. Ten years: perfects adverse possession acquired in good faith under a colorable title; for the recission of contracts on the ground of error, fraud, violence or force; upon a warranty of an architect of contractor. Five years: upon commercial paper, on sales of movables not otherwise specified; for work, labor and services or professional services, against Notaries or advocates for the recovery of Instruments of Title, and for arrears of interest and rent. Two years: for torts and injuries not otherwise provided for, for service hire, by a teacher for tuition, board or lodging. One year: for slander or libel, for wages of clerks, merchants and employees engaged by the day, week or month; for hotel charges, and for bodily injuries by an accident or duel, and to set aside debtor's contracts in defraud of their creditors.

MARRIED WOMEN. Follows the French law; wife may devise her half of the community property; in case of intestacy it descends to her heirs. The wife's legal transactions must usually be authorized by the husband or the Court; she retains her right over her immovable property owned at the time of marriage; all movables owned at the time of marriage, or all property acquired thereafter is community property and may be administered and disposed of by the husband, who, however, can only devise one-half.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bills not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-juridical day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-juridical day shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. No specific statutory provisions.
